EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Mr. Steven Chang on August 19, 2009.

The application has been amended as follows:

IN THE CLAIMS:

Claim 35 (Currently Amended): A fine channel device comprising:

- a fine channel provided with first and second inlet ports configured to feed fluid;
- a fluid containing a catalyst disposed in the fine channel device;
- first and second inlet channels communicated with the first and second inlet ports, respectively, wherein the fluid containing a catalyst flows from the first inlet port to the first inlet channel;
- a confluent portion communicated with the first and second inlet channels;
- a branch portion communicated with the fine channel, from which first and second outlet channels are branched and configured to feed predetermined amounts of fluid;
- first and second outlet ports communicated with the first and second outlet channels, respectively;
- a circulating channel configured to feed the fluid containing a catalyst discharged from the first outlet port to the first inlet port; ~~and~~

Art Unit: 1797

means for supplying energy to fluid flowing the fine channel; and a mask;

wherein the fine channel includes a plurality of partition walls disposed along a boundary formed by at least two kinds of fluid fed from the inlet ports configured to not cause mutual contamination of fluid, wherein each partition wall of the plurality of partition walls includes an elongated upper edge that extends along a line parallel to a fluid flow path within the fine channel, wherein the plurality of partition walls are disposed at intervals in a flowing direction of fluid, said intervals are longer than an elongated length of each partition wall, wherein intervals between the partition walls are present along the entire length of the fine channel except in the vicinity of the confluent portion and the vicinity of the branch portion of the fine channel, and wherein the partition walls include continuous partition walls disposed in the vicinity of the confluent portion and in the vicinity of the branch portion of the fine channel, wherein said means for supplying energy is a light irradiation device configured to irradiate light on a portion of the fine channel through the mask.

Claim 36 (Canceled).

REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Claims 1-5, 8, 10-18, 20-24, 35 and 37-41 are allowed. The prior art does not disclose or adequately suggest a fine channel device comprising the combination of elements recited in claims 1 and 24, wherein, in particular, a fluid containing a catalyst is disposed in the fine channel device, a circulating channel circulates the fluid containing a catalyst from the first outlet port to the first inlet port, and a thermal barrier is disposed between the confluent portion and the branch portion of the fine channel device. In addition, the prior art does not disclose or adequately suggest a fine channel device comprising the combination of elements recited in claim 35, wherein, in particular, a fluid containing a catalyst is disposed in the fine channel device, a circulating channel circulates the fluid containing a catalyst from the first outlet port to the first inlet port, and a light irradiation device supplies energy to fluid flowing in the channel, said light irradiation device being configured to irradiate light on a portion of the fine channel through a mask. Claim 38 is allowed for the same reasons set forth in the previous Office Action.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
